Teaching Techniques in English as a Second Language

Series Editors: Russell N. Campbell and William E. Rutherford

A unique series of books especially designed to meet the needs of the busy classroom teacher. Teachers new to the ESL field will rely on these books for practical, step-by-step guidance. Experienced teachers will find new teaching applications for many of the principles they already value, as well as thought-provoking questions to stimulate further exploration. Practical, concrete, linguistically-sound answers to the question of what to do on Monday morning are presented. The authors of each volume in the series are noted authorities in their field and have had years of teaching and teacher-training experience.

Techniques in Teaching Writing
Ann Raimes
Practical procedures for teachers to follow at every stage are outlined, including ways to stimulate students to write through pictures, readings, and discussions, and ways to respond to student writing as a form of communication. ©1983
434131-3 Book $17.95

Techniques and Resources in Teaching Grammar
Marianne Celce-Murcia and Sharon L. Hilles
This book is for teachers who are asking whether, when, and how to teach grammar. The first two chapters of the book address general questions of grammar in ESL theory and classroom practice. These are followed by ideas for creative teaching of grammar. Included are specific suggestions for teaching most of the common, beginning-level structures, which are listed separately in a grammar index for easy reference. ©1988
434191-7 Book $17.95

Techniques in Teaching Reading
Sandra Silberstein
Appropriate for new and experienced teachers alike, this book answers both theoretical and practical questions on the teaching of reading. The author offers numerous suggestions on how to teach expository prose, non prose reading, fiction, poetry, and songs, as well as advice on how to help students discern opinion from fact. Textbook examples are complemented with a chapter on how teachers can develop their own materials. ©1993
434134-8 Book $17.95

Techniques in Teaching Vocabulary
