GREAT BATTLES OF HISTORY

This dazzling seven-part series listed below spotlights crucial battles within the context of epic struggles for national, political, and religious domination. THE WARS OF THE ROSES

Using large-scale reenactments of 15th-century warfare, detailed maps, graphics, and expert commentary by Dr. David Chandler, military historian and former Head of War Studies at Sandhurst, this informative program explores the roots and the results of the brutal and exhausting civil war between the houses of York and Lancaster. From St. Albans to Bosworth Field, the program provides a penetrating examination of a complicated yet compelling period of English history. (30 minutes, color)

JJE8530 VHS $89.95 DVD-R $89.95

THE BATTLE OF QUEBEC

As the North American colonies of France and Great Britain continued to spread, friction and outright violence between New France and New England became inevitable. Placing the French and Indian War in its larger political context, this program traces the war's progress to the Battle of Quebec. In a bold stroke, the British deployed on the Plains of Abraham under cover of darkness—and a mere fifteen minutes of combat spelled the beginning of the end of 150 years of French colonial rule. (31 minutes, color)

JJE8532 VHS $89.95 DVD-R $89.95

THE BATTLE OF HASTINGS

October 14, 1066, was a day that saw the history of England and Europe change forever. This program describes the Battle of Hastings in its entirety: the position of Harold II's Anglo-Saxon army near a village that today is simply called "Battle," William of Normandy's surprise attack from Telham Hill, the cavalry charges and hand-to-hand fighting that steadily weakened Harold's troops, and the death of King Harold himself—shot through the eye with an arrow. In addition, Dr. David Chandler, military historian and former Head of War Studies at Sandhurst, discusses the strategy and tactics used by both sides. (30 minutes, color)

JJE8533 VHS $89.95 DVD-R $89.95

THE ENGLISH CIVIL WAR

This program is a study of the bitter 17th-century struggle between Parliamentarian and Royalist forces, which led to the execution of King Charles I and a brief period of republican government. Using 3-D maps and graphics, reenactments of period warfare, and analysis by Dr. David Chandler, military historian and former Head of War Studies at Sandhurst, the social, political, economic, and religious dimensions of this tragic chapter of history are explored. (30 minutes, color)

JJE8534 VHS $89.95 DVD-R $89.95

THE SPANISH CONQUEST OF MEXICO

Although Hernán Cortés hardly considered himself the reincarnation of Quetzalcoatl, the Aztecs did—and his conquest of Mesoamerica utterly destroyed their world, exactly as prophesied. In this program, Spanish historian and Oxford University professor Sir John Elliott and cultural historian Dr. Elizabeth Baquedano survey political, cultural, and religious aspects of Aztec civilization; analyze Cortés' military campaign in detail; and discuss Spanish influences on Mexican culture. Artwork, artifacts, 3-D models, and excerpts from the writings of Bernal Diaz add depth to this penetrating study of Spanish opportunism in the New World. (30 minutes, color)

JJE9107 VHS $89.95 DVD-R $89.95

THE SPANISH ARMADA

Outwitted and outmaneuvered by Lord Howard of Effingham and Sir Francis Drake and thwarted by the weather as well, the Duke of Medina Sidonia's once-mighty Armada returned to Spain in defeat, signaling the end of Spanish naval supremacy. This program analyzes the political and military aspects of Philip II's attempted invasion of England through expert commentary, battle maps, and reenactments involving the personalities and the ships that made this conflict a watershed in European history. (30 minutes, color)

JJE9108 VHS $89.95 DVD-R $89.95

THE NAPOLEONIC WARS

At a time when revolutionary France was assailed from all sides, there emerged a young military officer whose genius and ambition assured him of great fame—and notoriety. In this program, Dr. David Chandler—world-renowned authority on the Emperor Napoleon and author of The Campaigns of Napoleon—provides full commentary on the strategies and tactics of the Napoleonic Wars. Large-scale reenactments bring to life the military campaigns that so strongly influenced a century of European history. Maps, hundreds of images and paintings, and analyses of the weapons used by the opposing armies also contribute to this thorough examination of the Napoleonic era. (31 minutes, color)

BATTLE OF THE ALAMO

"The doomed garrison has stood its ground... Now, alone, they face the inevitable hour and rush headlong into the crucible of history." This program—narrated by Hal Holbrook and filmed in part at the Alamo itself—travels back in time to the pivotal winter of 1836, when William Travis, Davy Crockett, Jim Bowie, and fewer than 200 Texians, as they called themselves, were engaged by the forces of General Antonio López de Santa Anna. The 13-day siege and the climactic battle, which lasted less than an hour, are thoroughly examined. Reenactments based on original journal entries bring the epic confrontation to life. "REMEMBER THE MAINE":

The Roots of the Spanish-American War

"The U.S.S. Maine Blown Up in Havana Harbor—268 Men Lost" shouted the headlines of the day. Using archival footage, newspaper excerpts, and historical documents, this program traces the roots of the Spanish-American War to Spain's quest to preserve its flagging empire, American imperialism, and the genuine desire on the part of Cubans to shake off the yoke of Spanish domination. It closely examines the role of Cuba's poet/patriot José Martí, exposes American expansionist policies that contributed to our decision to enter the war, and reveals Spanish attempts to thwart open conflict. (50 minutes, color)
 BVL8334 VHS $89.95

THE SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR:

A Conflict in Progress

This program examines the conduct of the war, from Theodore Roosevelt's Rough Riders, to the defeatist attitude of Spanish commander Admiral Cerveras, to Cuban General Gomez and his decision to side with the Americans. Actual footage taken at the battles of Las Guasimas, El Caney, and San Juan Hill supports excellent historical commentary, including photos, sketches, and firsthand accounts of the war by publishing mogul William Randolph Hearst. The precise sequence of political and military events leading to the Spanish defeat is carefully traced up to the Treaty of Paris, where Spain relinquishes all rights to Cuba, the Philippines, Guam, and Puerto Rico.
